 2. All adjournment and extension requests shall be addressed to the Court and filed as a letter motion in accordance with Rule I(B). The subject appearance or deadline is not adjourned unless the Court informs the parties – typically by notice to ECF – that the letter motion has been granted. All adjournment and extension requests must state:

 - b. The number of previous requests for adjournments or extensions;

C. Text Searchable Documents. All documents filed to ECF must be text searchable.

D. Exhibits. Any party filing exhibits to ECF must: (1) file each exhibit as a separate PDF file; and (2) clearly identify and describe each exhibit. (For example, “Exhibit A – Jane Smith Dep.”)

III. MOTIONS

A. Strict compliance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Local Rules of the Eastern District of New York, and this Court’s Individual Rules is required. Submissions not in compliance, including, but not limited to untimely submissions, may not be considered by the Court.

B. Pre-Motion Conference Requests in Civil Cases are required for dismissal motions pursuant Rule 12 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and summary judgment motions pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. If warranted, the Court will set a briefing schedule for proposed motion(s) at the pre-motion conference.

1. Requesting a Pre-Motion Conference. To request a pre-motion conference, the moving party shall file a letter motion of no more than four (4) pages, briefly stating the basis for the anticipated underlying motion. The opposing party shall submit a letter response, of not more than four (4) pages, setting forth its position in opposition. If applicable, the opposing party shall state whether it seeks to file a cross-motion. All pre-motion conference requests are to be filed in accordance with Rule I(B) above. Carefully review Rule III(B)(5) regarding the exchange of Local Rule 56.1 Statements in advance of summary judgment pre-motion conference requests.

2. Pre-Motion Conferences and Deadlines. The filing of a pre-motion conference request does not stay any future deadlines, except that such a motion concerning a proposed motion to dismiss will stay the defendant's time to answer or otherwise move with respect to the Complaint. The parties shall adhere to the deadlines set by the assigned Magistrate Judge and shall file pre-motion conference requests prior to the set deadline for filing dispositive motions.
3. Court May Construe Pre-Motion Conference Request as Motion. PARTIES ARE ON NOTICE: In the Court's discretion, in appropriate cases, the pre-motion conference request and response thereto may be construed as the proposed underlying motion and corresponding opposition. In such an instance, the parties will be notified, and the Court will set a hearing on the motion. Arguments not raised in the pre-motion conference request or during the subsequent hearing shall be deemed waived.
4. Motions to Dismiss. Responses to pre-motion conference requests regarding proposed motions to dismiss are to be filed no later than seven (7) days after receipt of the movant's pre-motion conference request.
5. Summary Judgment Motions. Responses to pre-motion conference requests regarding motions for summary judgment are to be filed no later than twenty-one (21) days after receipt of the movant's pre-motion conference request. Adherence to Local Civil Rule 56.1 is required.
 - a. Rule 56.1 Statement. Along with the required pre-motion conference request, any party seeking leave to file a motion for summary judgment must also file a Local Rule 56.1 Statement. Each numbered paragraph in the Rule 56.1 Statement must contain only one factual assertion. Each factual assertion must be followed by a supporting citation to the record. Failure to comply with this rule may constitute grounds for striking the Rule 56.1 Statement and/or denying the pre-motion conference request.
 - b. Rule 56.1 Counterstatement. Within twenty-one (21) days after receipt of the movant's Rule 56.1 Statement, the party opposing the pre-motion conference request must serve the movant with a counterstatement pursuant to Local Rule 56.1(b). The Rule 56.1 Counterstatement must: contain numbered paragraphs tracking those in the movant's Rule 56.1 Statement; for each paragraph, state specifically what is admitted and what is disputed; and, provide the basis for any dispute by citing specific evidence. Failure to comply with this Rule may constitute grounds for deeming statements in the Rule 56.1 Statement admitted, striking the Rule 56.1 Counterstatement, and/or granting of the pre-motion conference request as unopposed, and/or the summary judgment motion.

- c. Additional Factual Statements. If additional factual statements are made by the opposing party: (a) they must be supported by citation to admissible evidence, which evidence must be attached as an exhibit to a declaration and filed with said Counterstatement; and (b) the movant must file a responsive Rule 56.1 Statement addressing those additional factual statements, which responses must also be made within fourteen (14) days of their service and be supported by citation to admissible evidence. Failure to comply with these requirements may constitute grounds for deeming additional factual statements in the Rule 56.1 Counterstatement admitted.
 - d. Summary Judgment Exhibits. All evidence cited in Rule 56.1 Statements, Counterstatement, and Responses must be attached as exhibits to a declaration, which are to be filed with said Statements, Counterstatements, and Responses. Depositions submitted in support of or in opposition to a summary judgment motion must be submitted in full (condensed) format. Further, see Rule II(D), supra, regarding the filing of exhibits on ECF.
 - e. Refiling Not Required. In instances where summary judgment motions and corresponding memoranda are filed, the parties are not to refile their Rule 56.1 Statements, Counterstatements, Responses, or the respective supporting declarations and exhibits.
- C. For all other motions, pre-motion conference requests are not required. Further, the Court will not set a briefing schedule for such motions; rather the parties must comply with the applicable Federal and Local Rules. The parties may not change a briefing schedule, whether set by the Court or the Federal and/or Local Rules, without permission from the Court. The parties' stipulation to change a briefing schedule is ineffective unless "so ordered" by the Court.
- D. Motions for Default Judgments and to Compel Arbitration Awards. PARTIES ARE ON NOTICE: Motions for default judgment and to compel arbitration awards must be supported by evidence establishing liability and substantiating the damages or award sought. Failure to file such required competent evidence will result in the subject motion being denied.

E. Page Limitations, Formatting, and Bundling.

1. Memoranda of Law. Unless prior permission has been granted, memoranda of law in support of and in opposition to motions are limited to twenty-five (25) pages, and reply memoranda are limited to ten (10) pages. All memoranda must contain an index of cases; all memoranda of ten (10) or more pages shall also contain a table of contents. All requests to file rebuttals, sur-replies, etc., and to exceed page limits must be made by letter motion; such requests are granted sparingly.
2. Formatting. Motion paper captions must list all active plaintiffs and defendants. Motion papers shall have: one-inch margins; 12-point Times New Roman or larger font; and, be double spaced (with no more than 23 lines per page). To the extent necessary, footnotes shall be printed in 10-point Times New Roman or larger font and be single spaced.
3. Bundling Rule. No motion papers are to be filed until the motion has been fully briefed, unless doing so could result in a loss of a legal right. However, when serving papers, a party may file with the Court its transmittal letter setting forth the papers being served. The initial movant shall file all motion papers and related matters once briefing has been completed.

F. Courtesy Copies. See Rule IV.

The list will also include possible impeachment documents and/or exhibits, as well as exhibits that will be offered only on rebuttal.
