P.M. _____
TIME A.M. _____

WHEREAS, plaintiff Time Warner Cable of New York City, a division of Time Warner Entertainment Company, L.P. (hereinafter "TWCNYC" or plaintiff), having instituted this action against defendant Luz Mejia (hereinafter "Mejia" or defendant) under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Title 47, U.S.C. §§553(a)(1) and 605(a) and under New York Public Service Law, Section 225(6), alleging defendant's interception, reception and display of plaintiff's cable television programming services without plaintiff's authorization by use of an unauthorized converter-decoder allegedly purchased by defendant from MD Electronics of Omaha, Nebraska on July 5, 1996; and,

WHEREAS, defendant, without making any admissions to plaintiff's allegation and denying those allegations, does hereby wish to resolve plaintiff's claims under this Partial Consent Judgment and Order, and there being no reason why a discontinuance of plaintiff's claims against only defendant Mejia should not enter, it is hereby,
