I. CASE FILINGS

A. Electronic Case Filing (ECF)

Pursuant to Administrative Order 2004-08, all case documents must be filed electronically via ECF for all criminal and civil cases, except that parties proceeding pro se need not file via ECF. All written submissions and supporting materials must be text-searchable, to the extent practicable.

Parties represented by counsel in pro se cases must file documents via ECF and serve copies on the pro se litigants.

The Eastern District's User Guide for ECF, which includes contact information for questions regarding ECF, is available at:

https://img.nyed.uscourts.gov/files/local_rules/ecf-usermanual.pdf. Parties are advised not to contact chambers with questions regarding ECF registration, filing, or other technical issues.

B. Filing Submissions Under Seal

Motions for leave to file documents under seal should be filed via ECF in accordance with the EDNY's instructions for filing sealed documents. The proposed sealed documents should be attached to the motion for leave to file under seal.

Instructions for filing sealed documents in civil cases are at:

instructions for filing sealed documents in criminal cases are at:

<https://img.nyed.uscourts.gov/files/forms/EfilingSealedCR.pdf>.

C. Word-Processing Files of Certain Submissions

Proposed orders, jury instructions, findings of fact, conclusions of law, and other writings a party requests that the Court adopt shall be filed on ECF and provided via e-mail, in PDF and Microsoft Word format, to Merle_Chambers@nyed.uscourts.gov.

D. Filings Styled as Letters

Any filing styled as a “Letter” shall identify in its ECF header (i) the addressee and (ii) the subject matter. E.g., “Letter to Judge Merle re: Request for Remote Conference.”

E. Courtesy Copies

1. Parties shall deliver to chambers two (2) courtesy copies of the following submissions:
 - a. all written submissions filed on ECF that are twenty-five (25) pages in length or more (inclusive of any exhibits or attachments); and
 - b. regardless of page length, all (i) motions to dismiss, (ii) motions for summary judgment, (iii) motions to compel arbitration, and (iv) motions to remand to state court.
2. The courtesy copies will be reproductions of the document as filed on ECF, with the ECF stamp appearing at the top of the page.
3. Courtesy copies must comply with the following requirements:
 - a. Documents must be printed double-sided and bound on the left side.
 - b. For submissions fifty (50) pages in length or more, all documents comprising a submission (i.e., memoranda, declarations, exhibits, etc.) must be submitted together, in a single three-ring binder with appropriately labeled tabs. For example, all exhibits must be identified and separated by corresponding numbered or lettered tabs. Binders must be appropriately sized for their contents, but they must not exceed 2 inches. Binder covers and spines must identify the case name, docket number, and the binder’s contents.

- c. Parties proceeding pro se are exempt from these requirements but should make every effort to clearly mark exhibits and present well-organized papers.

F. Requests for Adjournments or Extensions of Time

1. All requests for adjournments or extension of time must be in writing and submitted on ECF and state:
 - a. the original date;
 - b. the reason for the request;
 - c. the number of previous requests for adjournment or extension;
 - d. whether these previous requests were granted or denied; and
 - e. the adversary's position.
2. If the requested adjournment or extension of time affects any other scheduled dates, proposed revised dates must be provided.
3. Absent an emergency, all requests for adjournment or extension of time shall be made at least two (2) business days prior to the scheduled deadline or appearance.
4. Requests for adjournments in criminal cases must also state:
 - a. whether the parties have agreed on a new date or period of availability; and
 - b. whether the parties move, either jointly or separately, to exclude time under the Speedy Trial Act and the reason. If moving separately, the requesting party must indicate whether the non-requesting party opposes the motion.

G. Evidentiary Filings

1. Parties shall file only the pages of transcripts containing relevant testimony cited in the memoranda or affidavits. However, excerpts must comply with Fed. R. Evid. 106. Parties shall include the transcript cover page and portion of the transcript necessary for completeness. If the transcript contains a discussion of a matter, include the whole discussion.
2. Parties shall include a declaration identifying each of the exhibits and the page ranges of the exhibits within the compiled PDF.
3. The exhibits shall be designated on ECF with short titles. E.g., “Ex. 1 – Doe Declaration,” rather than “Ex. 1.”

II. COMMUNICATIONS WITH CHAMBERS & HEARINGS

A. Written Communications

1. All communications with chambers shall be in writing and filed on ECF, with copies simultaneously delivered to all parties who do not receive automatic notification through ECF.
2. Parties may not communicate with the Court via fax and/or email without prior authorization.

B. Telephone Calls

Parties are encouraged to communicate with the Court via written communication rather than by telephone. For docketing, scheduling, or calendar matters, please call Courtroom Deputy Alicia Guy at (718) 613-2355. Ex parte telephone calls to chambers about the substance of cases are not permitted.

If a submission requires immediate attention—including for settlement shortly before hearing or conference—please file on ECF and then call chambers.

C. Pronouns & Honorifics

The parties and counsel are encouraged to advise the Court if they would like to be addressed with a particular pronoun and/or honorific so that the Court may address them respectfully. People appearing before this Court may do so by speaking to the courtroom deputy.

D. Participation of Attorneys in Oral Argument

The Court encourages the participation of less experienced attorneys (i.e., those with six (6) or fewer years of experience) and attorneys from backgrounds that historically have been underrepresented in the federal bar. To facilitate this provision, the Court is amenable to permitting more than one attorney to argue for one party.

E. Use of Electronic Equipment

Any party wishing to present marked exhibits to the jury in digital form who has not previously used the Court's electronic equipment is directed to schedule a meeting with Courtroom Deputy Alicia Guy at least one (1) week prior to the commencement of the trial to review the available equipment for the presentation of digital evidence. Counsel should be accompanied by the audio-visual personnel who will be operating any equipment that will be used at trial.

III. CIVIL MOTIONS

A. Pre-Motion Conferences

1. In all cases in which the proposed movant is represented by counsel (except habeas corpus/prisoner petitions, social security appeals, and bankruptcy appeals), a pre-motion conference with the Court must be requested before making:
 - a. any motion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 or 56;
 - b. any motion for a change of venue;
 - c. any motion to compel arbitration; or
 - d. any motion to remand a removed case to state court.
2. To request a pre-motion conference, the moving party shall file a letter-motion not to exceed three (3) pages in length setting forth the basis for the anticipated motion. Opposing parties shall file a response, not to exceed three (3) pages, within seven (7) days.
3. Pre-motion letters and responses must contain a synopsis of the arguments and legal authority.
4. Pre-motion letters regarding an anticipated Rule 56 motion must attach a statement of material facts in the form set forth in Local Civil Rule 56.1.
5. Service of the letter-motion within the time requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 or 56, or any other applicable filing or service deadline, shall constitute timely service of a motion made pursuant to those provisions.

B. Briefing Schedule

1. The Court may set a briefing schedule without holding a pre-motion conference. If the Court holds a pre-motion conference, a briefing schedule will be set if necessary.

Movants should anticipate filing the opening motion shortly after the conference.

2. The Bundling Rule

- a. Except as otherwise set forth herein, the court requests that the moving party prepare its notice of motion, memorandum of law, and supporting affidavits and exhibits in accordance with Local Civil Rules 7.1 and 11.1, and all other applicable rules of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Local Rules of the Eastern District of New York.

The notice of motion shall not contain a return date. The moving papers shall be served on all parties but only a copy of the movant's cover letter shall be filed via ECF and designated as a Letter. The filing of the cover letter within the time period prescribed by any federal statute, rule relating to the filing of motions, or Court order shall constitute timely filing of the motion within the meaning of such statute or rule, and as required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d)(1).

- b. Opposition papers shall be served on all parties, but only a copy of the opponent's cover letter shall be filed via ECF. That filing shall be designated as a Letter on ECF.
- c. After the motion has been fully briefed (i.e., the moving papers, opposition papers, and reply papers, if any, have been served), the moving party shall file all of the papers on ECF. Each paper shall be clearly denominated on ECF as a motion, memorandum, affidavit, etc.
- d. When filing a bundled motion for summary judgment, the papers shall be filed in four docket entries:

- a. The first entry shall contain the Notice of Motion.
- b. The second entry shall contain the memorandum in support. The entry should include the following documents attached as exhibits:
 - i. the Local Rule 56.1 statement;
 - ii. the declaration listing exhibits; and
 - iii. exhibits (each uploaded as a separate entry and appropriately titled, e.g., “Ex. 1 – Doe Declaration”).
- c. The third entry shall contain the nonmovant’s filings in the same order.
- d. The fourth entry shall contain the reply, if any.
- e. The Bundling Rule does not apply to the following motions:
 - a. motions filed in a criminal case;
 - b. motions filed in cases where a party is proceeding pro se;
 - c. motions for default judgment pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(2);
 - d. post-trial and/or post-judgment motions under Rules 50(b) (for judgment as a matter of law), 52(b) (to amend or make additional findings), 59 (for a new trial) and 60 (for relief from a final judgment, order, or proceeding); and
 - e. motions for attorney’s fees pursuant to Rule 54(d)(2), if the motion is made before a notice of appeal has been filed and the Court has extended the time to appeal under Rule 58(e).

C. Memoranda of Law

Unless prior permission has been granted, memoranda of law in support of or in opposition to motions are limited to twenty-five (25) pages, double-spaced, and reply memoranda are limited to ten (10) pages, double-spaced. These page limits are exclusive of tables of contents, tables of authorities, appendices, and attachments. Parties may use Georgia or Times New Roman 12-point font, with footnotes in 12-point font, and one-inch margins. Memoranda of ten (10) pages or more shall contain a table of contents and table of authorities.

Memoranda in support of or in opposition to motions for reconsideration are limited to ten (10) pages.

Parties are encouraged to file requests to exceed page limits prior to filing the relevant memorandum or brief and include their reasons for good cause.

D. Social Security Cases

1. All social security cases should be consistent with this district's Administrative Order 2015-05 ("In re: Scheduling in Social Security Cases").
2. The Bundling Rule, found in Rule III.B.2., does not apply to social security appeals.
3. Stipulation
 - a. Parties seeking or opposing judgment on the pleadings in social security cases shall confer and prepare a stipulation of fact with a chronology of medical treatment.
 - b. The stipulation shall be filed on ECF when the motion is fully briefed and shall set forth all relevant facts in the administrative record, including information contained in the treatment and medical records, in chronological order and with citations to the record.

- c. If a dispute of fact exists, the parties should include the disputed fact in the chronology, along with a footnote briefly describing the dispute (without argument) and the relevant record citation(s).

9. Witnesses: A list of names and addresses by each party as to the fact and expert witnesses whose testimony is to be offered in its case in chief, together with a brief narrative statement of the expected testimony of each witness. Only listed witnesses will be permitted to testify except when prompt notice has been given and good cause shown.
10. Deposition Testimony: A designation by each party of deposition testimony to be offered in its case in chief, with any cross-designations and objections by any other party.
11. Stipulations: A statement of stipulated facts, if any.
12. Exhibits: A schedule listing exhibits to be offered in evidence and, if not admitted by stipulation, the party or parties that will be offering them. The plaintiff's exhibits shall be identified by numbers, and the defendant's exhibits shall be identified by letters. Except for good cause shown, only exhibits listed will be received into evidence.

The parties will list and briefly describe the basis for any objections that they have to the admissibility of any exhibits to be offered by any other party and set out the proponent's responses to those objections. Descriptions need not be longer than several sentences, but they shall include more than just a list of the rules upon which objections are based. Any objection not listed in the pretrial order shall be deemed waived, and any exhibits without an objection will be deemed admitted into evidence at the start of the trial. The parties shall also provide the Court with three copies of tabbed binders containing all exhibits, with the case caption on the spine and front cover of each binder, on the Friday before the start of trial, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If in the judgment of the parties the volume of exhibits makes this binder requirement impracticable, please call chambers at least ten (10) business days before trial for instructions on how to submit courtesy copies of the exhibits.
 - a. The plaintiff's exhibits must be pre-marked with numbers. The defendant's exhibits must be pre-marked with letters.

- b. Any document to be offered in evidence that contains multiple pages shall be paginated by counsel before trial, but any existing Bates stamps or other pagination may suffice.
