3. Litigants proceeding pro se are exempt from ECF requirements. Other requests to be exempt from ECF requirements may be made in writing to Magistrate Judge Reyes. Requests for exemptions to the ECF requirements will only be considered after the attorney seeking the request has completed ECF training. Such requests will be granted only in limited and exceptional circumstances.
4. All letters to Magistrate Judge Reyes requesting Court intervention, including those sent pursuant to Local Civil Rules 37.1 and 37.3, or requesting an adjournment or extension of discovery deadlines, must be electronically filed under "Motions" and not "Letter" under "Other Documents."

Failure to respond within four days may result in the motion being granted as unopposed. Unless prior permission has been granted, all letters and responses shall not exceed three single-spaced pages in a 12-point font with one-inch side, top and bottom margins.

D. General Practices.

1. Service, filing, briefing schedules and courtesy copy.
 - a. For motions other than discovery motions, no motion papers shall be filed until the motion has been fully briefed. The notice of motion and all supporting papers are to be served on the other parties along with a cover letter setting forth whom the movant represents and the papers being served. A copy of the cover letter only is to be filed to chambers at that time.
 - b. Subject to Court approval, the parties are to set up their own briefing schedule for motions other than discovery motions. No changes in the approved schedule may be made without the Court’s approval. Approval may be given at the pre-motion conference or by subsequent letter. No party is to serve any motion papers prior to obtaining the Court’s approval of the briefing schedule.
 - c. The original moving party shall be responsible for electronically filing all motion papers. Such party shall also serve and file a letter specifying each document filed in the motion package. The adversary is responsible for providing the movant with a PDF version of opposition papers, as well as one (1) courtesy copy for chambers.

d. For discovery motions, each party's papers may be filed electronically upon their completion, following the schedule provided in Local Rule 6.1(a).

2. Memoranda of law. Unless prior permission has been granted, memoranda of law in support of and in opposition to motions on notice are limited to 25 pages, and reply memoranda are limited to 10 pages. 4. Oral argument on motions. Parties may request oral argument. The Court will determine whether argument will be heard, and, if so, will advise counsel of the argument date.

IV. Pretrial Procedures in Civil Trials Referred To Magistrate Judge Reyes

- A. Joint pretrial orders. In cases referred for trial before Magistrate Judge Reyes in which a pretrial order has already been filed pursuant to the individual practice rules of another judge, no additional filing is required under this rule. In cases where no pretrial order was filed prior to the referral to Magistrate Judge Reyes, the parties shall, on the date specified in the scheduling order or as otherwise ordered by the Court, within 60 days after discovery is completed, submit a joint pretrial order for approval that includes the following:
 1. The full caption of the action;
 2. The names (including firm names), addresses (including email), and telephone and fax numbers of trial counsel;
 3. A brief statement by plaintiff as to the basis of subject matter jurisdiction, and a brief statement by each other party as to the presence or absence of subject matter jurisdiction. Such statements shall cite relevant statutes and facts regarding citizenship and jurisdictional amounts.

4. A brief summary by each party of the claims and defenses that party has asserted that remain to be tried, without recitals of evidentiary matter but including citations to all statutes relied on. Such summaries shall identify all claims and defense previously asserted that are not to be tried.
 5. A statement by each party as to whether the case is to be tried with or without a jury, and the number of trial days needed.
 6. A list by each party as to the fact and expert witnesses whose testimony is to be offered in its case in chief, indicating whether such witnesses will testify in person or by deposition. Only listed witnesses will be permitted to testify; except when prompt notice has been given and good cause shown.
 7. A designation by each party of deposition testimony to be offered in its case in chief, with any cross-designations and objections by any other party.
 8. A statement of stipulated facts, if any.
 9. Exhibits:
 - A. A schedule listing exhibits to be offered in evidence and if not admitted by stipulation, the party or parties that will be offering them. The schedule will also include possible impeachment documents and/or exhibits, as well as exhibits that will be offered only on rebuttal. The parties will list and briefly describe the basis for any objections that they have to the admissibility of any exhibits to be offered by any other party. Parties are expected to resolve before trial all issues of authenticity, chain of custody and related grounds. Failure to object in the pretrial order waives all objections at trial, except objections as to relevance. Only exhibits listed will be received in evidence except for good cause; and
 - B. All exhibits must be premarked for the trial, and exchanged with the other parties, and a full set of all premarked exhibits must be provided to chambers at least ten days before trial. Where exhibits are voluminous, they should be placed in binders with tabs.
- B. Filings prior to trial. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, each party shall file, 15 days before the date of commencement of trial if such a date has been fixed, or 30 days after the filing of the final pretrial order if no trial date has been fixed:
1. Requests to charge, proposed voir dire questions and proposed verdict form. Requests to charge should be limited to the elements of the claims, the damages sought, and defenses. General instructions will be prepared by the Court. This material should also be submitted via email or on a CD in Word or Word Perfect format.

2. By claim, a detailed statement regarding damages and other relief sought;
3. In non-jury cases, a statement of the elements of each claim or defense involving such party, together with a summary of the facts relied upon to establish each element;
4. In limine motions addressing any evidentiary or other issues, which could not be resolved; and
5. In any case where such party believes, it would be useful, a pretrial memorandum.

V. Court Appearances

- A. “Of Counsel” Appearances Prohibited. Only a party’s counsel of record, or an attorney personally authorized to appear by the party (and not simply by the party’s counsel of record) may appear on behalf of a party. If a law firm has appeared as counsel of record for a party, any attorney actually employed by that law firm may appear. An attorney acting “of counsel” for a party’s counsel of record may not appear without the represented party’s explicit authorization, as such an attorney has no authority to make binding representation on behalf of any party. See N.Y. Rules of Prof’l Conduct 1.2(c), 22 N.Y.C. R.R. § 1200 (requiring client to give “informed consent” before an attorney may make a limited appearance on the client’s behalf).
- B. Familiarity with the Case. Any attorney who wishes to speak at a conference should be fully familiar with the record and prepared to address any unresolved factual or legal issue in the case as well as the possibility of settlement. If multiple attorneys will appear, they may of course divide that responsibility among themselves.
- C. Opportunities to Gain Courtroom Experience. Each party has full discretion to authorize any properly admitted attorney to speak on its behalf at any conference or hearing. However, I encourage the parties and their counsel to provide opportunities for junior lawyers to speak in court. In particular, where a junior attorney has done significant work in researching or drafting a party’s memorandum, I will find that attorney’s participation in the courtroom discussion particularly valuable in helping me to understand the issues before the court.
