Grievances

Local Civil Rule 1.9
Disclosure of Interested Parties

In a civil proceeding, any nongovernmental corporate party must file two copies of a statement identifying all its parent companies or stating that it has no parent companies. For purposes of this rule, a parent company means a publicly held corporation that controls the party (directly or through others) or owns 10% or more of the party's stock. A party must file the disclosure statement with its first appearance, pleading, petition, motion, response, or other request addressed to the court. A party must promptly file two copies of a supplemental disclosure statement upon any change in this information.

In a criminal proceeding, any nongovernmental corporate defendant must file two copies of a statement identifying all its parent companies or stating that it has no parent companies. For purposes of this rule, a parent company means a publicly held corporation that controls the party (directly or through others) or owns 10% of the party's stock. The defendant must file the disclosure statement at arraignment. The defendant must promptly file two copies of a supplemental disclosure statement upon any change in this information.

Adopted by the Board of Judges, EDNY, on April 18, 2000.
Effective date of amendment, June 1, 2000.
