Chief Judge Carol Bagley Amon is pleased to announce the opening of “Massimalismo 5” by Arnaldo M. Boscherini (Mabi) at the Charles P. Sifton Gallery.

Arnaldo Boscherini of Santa Sofia, Italy, has lived and painted in New York since the mid-1970s. He began his career as an artist in Rome, where, influenced by Arte Povera, he made jewelry from the nails of horseshoes and sold drawings to tourists in Piazza Navona. The bohemian attitude, which drew him from Rome to Paris to New York, today drives his explorations in paint. The message of his work is: “We are a world divided and afraid, we have lost touch with each other, with ourselves and with the art of living generally.” Arnaldo maintains homes in Manhattan, New York and in Santa Sofia, Italy. His work is in private collections in Paris, Rome, St. Tropez, and New York.

The exhibit opens on Wednesday, March 16, 2016, at 5:00 pm and runs through May 30, 2016, at the Charles P. Sifton Gallery, Theodore Roosevelt United States Courthouse in Brooklyn.
