EDNY NAMES NEW DISTRICT EXECUTIVE

Chief Judge Carol Bagley Amon and the Board of Judges of the Eastern District of New York are pleased to announce that Eugene J. Corcoran has been named the District Executive for the Eastern District of New York.

Most recently, Mr. Corcoran held the position of Deputy Commissioner of Enforcement and Policy for the City of New York's Department of Buildings. From 2003 to 2010, he served with distinction as the United States Marshal for the Eastern District of New York. His former experience also includes holding the position of Deputy Chief – Field Command of the Metropolitan Transportation Authority and serving as a Captain in the New York State Police. Mr. Corcoran received his Masters of Public Administration from Marist College in Poughkeepsie, New York and his Bachelor of Science in Police Administration from Empire State College in Saratoga Springs, New York.

We are delighted to have someone of Mr. Corcoran's experience, skill, and ties to the Eastern District of New York serve in this most important position.
